About the 1st International Handicraft & Handloom Fair

Orissa is situated on the Eastern coast of India and is famous for its exquisite handloom and handicrafts. Department of Handicrafts and Department of Handloom & Textiles, with an objective to project state as destination point for sourcing from manufactures directly is organizing International Handicrafts and Handloom Fair at Bhubaneswar from 24th Feb. 2010 to 26th Feb. 2010.

The International Fair will provide an ideal opportunity for the overseas buyers for placing orders at very competitive prices. The sellers will be mainly the manufacturer / producers / exporters. The International Fair will be a two days event focusing on the specific needs of buyers and a complete handholding with manufacturers for sustainable supply chain management.

The International Fair assembles a rich collection of ritual, decorative and utilitarian products that reflects the style, subjects, values and aesthetic concerns of exporters, manufacturers and entrepreneurs from the state of Orissa.

Orissa

India's tourist destination

Centuries old, the craft traditions of Orissa have survived the test of time, and the craftsmanship has achieved technical perfection and artistic excellence.

Bhubaneswar, the capital city of Orissa is well linked by rail and air from Delhi, Mumbai, Chennai and Kolkata.

Known as the temple city, Bhubaneswar is part of the Bhubaneswar-Konark-Puri golden triangle for tourists. The world famous Sun Temple at Konark is about 60 kms. journey from Bhubaneswar and the famous beach of Puri is about 55 kms from Bhubaneswar.

February in Orissa is highly pleasant with a temperature of around 28 degrees.

You are cordially invited to the International Trade Fair 2010 at Bhubaneswar.
